Inside The National Aviary with Zooshirts.

Pittsburgh, PA (July 13, 2009) Aesthetic11 LLC. is pleased to announce that The National Aviary in Pittsburgh, PA is the first official distributor of Zooshirts! The Zebra-Man, Zooshirts' iconic figure, will celebrate with guests in “Lories’ Birthday Party” at The National Aviary from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 18th. The event will celebrate the 2nd birthday of the Lories & Friends exhibit. The Zebra-Man will hold a face paint session for guests from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m, in addition to participating with guests in activities throughout the event. Photographs from the event will be featured at Zooshirts.com.

“We are pleased to announce The National Aviary as our first distributor. Their work towards wildlife conservation is fulfilled by celebrating, protecting, and preserving birds. We mutually share wildlife conservation objectives,” said Nick Baugh, Owner of Zooshirts.

Zooshirts is the wildlife-oriented, eco-friendly clothing line that supports animal and global conservation. By using organic cotton and recycled materials, Zooshirts reduces the impact clothing production makes on the environment. All products are printed by hand in the USA.

The National Aviary (aviary.org), is the Nation's Premier Bird Park at Allegheny Commons West, 700 Arch Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15212. It began distributing Zooshirts' Flamingo, Penguin, and Lorikeet Tees on Saturday, June 6, 2009. The National Aviary is an accredited organization of the Association of Zoos and Aquariums (aza.org).

Zooshirts is owned and operated by Aesthetic11 LLC.
